

L.O: To identify persuasive features in a letter

Persuasive Technique	Can you find an example? Tick or cross	Evidence
Rhetorical question A question to make the reader think not actually answer
Exaggeration A point which is exaggerated
Points supported with examples When the writer backs up their point with evidence
Emotive language When the writer shares their feelings with the reader
Addressing the reader Using you/your Repetition Points repeated more than once

Persuasive Technique	Can you find an example? Tick or cross	Evidence
Rhetorical question A question to make the reader think not actually answer
Exaggeration A point which is exaggerated
Points supported with examples When the writer backs up their point with evidence
Emotive language When the writer shares their feelings with the reader Addressing the reader Using you/your Repetition Points repeated more than once

Challenge- Which letter do you think is the most persuasive and why?