What have you learnt
about prayer in Islam?

Ritual Prayer

Salat (prayer) is important to Muslims as it makes them feel connected to God (Allah).

Muslims usually go to a mosque to pray, but if they can't go to the mosque, they can pray anywhere that is clean. Muslims may use a prayer mat when they pray in places other than the mosque, to be sure the floor is clean where they pray.

Prayer mats are quite often highly decorated with patterns and colours but they never have pictures of people or animals on them.

Muslims always face Mecca (a holy place) when they pray.

Ritual Prayer

When Muslims pray, they perform sets of movements and gestures. Click on each number to find out more.

Muslims then look over their left shoulder to the angel to record their bad deeds. They then say their personal prayers.
