

L.O: To explain the key beliefs held by Hindus

We have learnt that Hindus believe in one supreme God - Brahman. He can take millions of forms and has millions of qualities. Because of this Hindus worship many different Gods. All of whom are still Brahman. Brahman is in everyone and everything.

We tried to think about our different forms and qualities.