

Date:

L.O.: To use the features of an instructional text.

Starter:

Add modal verbs into these sentences.

Modal Verbs

Positive

I will try to do my best in class.

It would be a catastrophe.

Kay can win the race.

We could buy sandwiches for lunch.

Ibrahim may play the king in the play.

Those ducks might swim across the river.

The class shall have a treat this afternoon.

Snacks should be eaten at break time.

You must open the door.

Katja ought to get up early.

A: You _____ want to bring a teddy bear.

B: You _____ definitely bring spare pants.

A: You _____ feel homesick but that's normal.

B: You _____ talk to a trusted adult about your worries.

Success Criteria:

Success Criteria	Done?
Introduction: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explain what your tips are about. Explain why you're writing them. Challenge: include a rhetorical question.
Kit List: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduce your list with a colon. Sort the items into categories.
Top Tips: Use the TEA structure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tip (short and concise) Explanation (why the tip is important) Advice (tips from you to the reader)
Second person to address the reader <ul style="list-style-type: none"> E.g. you probably are quite nervous, you will need
Adverbials of time and manner at the beginning of each instruction with a comma E.g. Before you pack, so that you don't miss home
Imperative verbs to tell your reader what to do E.g. pack your teddy bear, bring some sweets
Modal verbs for advice E.g. you might want to... you may like to...

Model: introduction

Going on your first residential trip can be really scary. You probably have lots of questions: what should I pack? Who will I share a room with? What if I get homesick? Don't worry, you might be an amateur but we aren't! Our step-by-step guide is full of tips to help you prepare and get excited about your excellent first ever trip away from home!

Model: Kit List

Kit list

You will need:

- Enough clothes plus one extra set
- Trainers
- Wellies
- Clean pants - more than you ever will need!
- A cuddly toy
- Spare glasses (if you wear them)
- A sunhat
- Sun cream
- A toothbrush
- Toothpaste
- A wash cloth
- Soap or shower gel

Let's look at the TEA structure:

Top Tips:

Use the TEA structure:

- Tip (short and concise)
- Explanation (why the tip is important)
- Advice (tips from you to the reader)

- Before you pack, try to find out what the weather will be like. If you know it's going to rain, pack your jacket and some spare clothes. If you know that the temperature will be hot, don't forget your sun cream. No one wants to be embarrassed by soggy socks or sunburn!
- Once you've checked the weather, pack all of your items into a bag. Make sure you can carry it on your own - dad isn't coming with you! You may want to get an adult to help you pack to make sure you don't forget anything.

Which other features from the success criteria can you identify?

Model: Top Tips

Our top tips

- Before you pack, try to find out what the weather will be like. If you know it's going to rain, pack your jacket and some spare clothes.
- If you know that the temperature will be hot, don't forget your sun cream. No one wants to be embarrassed by soggy socks or sunburn!
- Once you've checked the weather, pack all of your items into a bag. Make sure you can carry it on your own – dad isn't coming with you! You may want to get an adult to help you pack to make sure you don't forget anything.
- After you've packed, make sure you include something that will remind you of your own bed. That might be a cuddly toy, a book or your favourite pillowcase. All of these items will (hopefully) make you feel less homesick.

