

Lesson 4

L.O: To use possessive apostrophes correctly.

Success Criteria

I know when to use an apostrophe in a noun to show possession.

I know not all nouns ending in s need an apostrophe.

Apostrophes have two jobs.

Contraction

Making a word smaller by missing out some letters and using an apostrophe.

Possession

Showing that something belongs to somebody.

Possession Dog

Possession Dog likes to make it clear who owns what!

He does this by using apostrophes!

Apostrophes for possession

The skunk's hat

The baby's rabbit

Jacob's football

A. Choose a picture

B. Say a sentence with possession

A Write it down

Nadia

This is Nadia's radio.

Rachel

This is

Clara

This is

Owen

This is

Kaylee

This is

Malik

This is

Plenary

The babies were crying

There were lots of trees.

The dogs howled loudly.

Do not use apostrophes just because there is more than one thing. It is incorrect!