

To plan a narrative with description of setting, character and atmosphere

How will we create a great diary entry?

Greater Depth

Use language or character description or structure from other things you have read.

Make speech really sound like speech!

Write throughout as if you are Joachim - don't slip out of character!

Know how formal you are being - if it's informal, why? If it's formal, why?

Use a wide range of punctuation