

Feature	Underline in
Relative Clause starting with a relative pronoun of who, which, whose, whom or that. E.g. The man, who was old , sat down to play the piano.
Expanded Noun Phrase E.g. The gentle, old man sat down to play the piano.
Fronted adverbial for time, place or manner E.g. With great sadness , the man began to play.
Adjectives Strong, loud, tall
Parenthesis The man (Phil) sat down at his piano
Simile His legs felt like jelly.
Metaphor He was a statue – not moving a muscle.	