

LO To build cohesion within a paragraph

1. Sentence one must start with a fronted adverbial of time/place/manner/frequency to begin moving from the entrance into the narrow tunnel.
2. Sentence two must refer to an emotion the two characters are feeling (show not tell).
3. Sentence three must include a repeated word already written down.
4. Sentence four must include an adverbial of time to move the characters down the tunnel.
5. Sentence five must include an adverbial of place to describe a part of the tunnel.
6. Sentence six must repeat the emotion the two characters are feeling.

Beyond the tomb entrance, darkness took over. Fear ran through the veins of both boys and sweat began to bead on Barney's forehead. The fear would not subside. To begin with, this seemed like a fun idea- it was becoming the opposite as the boy's made their way down the passageway. Inside the tomb, noises could be heard as if somebody or something was wanting to get out. Paralysed, the boy's stood, not knowing whether to go in any further.
