

L7

L.O: To turn notes into sentences

Warm up

What are proper nouns?

Warm up

people's names place names

titles of books/films etc dates

shop names

What are proper nouns?

christina ohuruogo was born on 17th may in london.

Christina Ohuruogo was born on 17th May 1984 in London.

She trained hard to take part in the london olympic games 2020.

She trained hard to take part in the London Olympic Games 2020.

christina was part of the great britain team and won a silver medal in the 400m.

Christina was part of the Great Britain team and won a silver medal in the 400m.

L7

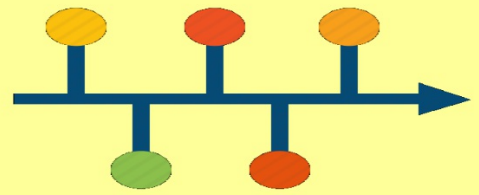

L.O: To turn notes into sentences

L.O: To turn notes into sentences

Success Criteria

- * Written in past tense
- * Written from one view point (first or third)
- * Time Adverbs
- * How adverbs
- * Capital letters for proper nouns

introduction

childhood

getting into running

Olympics

conclusion

NO SUBHEADINGS

L.O: To turn notes into sentences

Christina Ohuruogo was born May 17th 1984 in London. She specialised in 400m and was a medal winner in two Olympics. To Christina, running feels like flying.

EXAMPLE

Introduction

Loves the freedom of running. Feels like flying

Born 1984 London

400m runner for United Kingdom

Secondary school joined school netball team.

Worked hard at netball

A large rectangular area with a yellow border, containing seven horizontal black lines for writing. A vertical red line is on the left side, with two small red 'u' marks on it.

Played for England netball teams.

Had to choose between netball and running

