

Steps 2 success

1) Identify the have/has

2) If it has the word 'been' next to it, underline that too

3) If it has a part tense verb after it, underline that too.

E.g. I have broken my leg.

E.g. She has been to the shop.

E.g. My friends have cheered me on in the tournament.

Underline the parts of the sentence that shows the present perfect

The magic potion has bubbled up and out of the jar.

Harry Potter has been sat at his desk making the potion all day.

Hermione has waited for hours to see if hers will work.

The potion has been blown up by Neville Longbottom.

There were many lights on in the classroom.

Has Harry Potter been cheating with that spell book?

The potion jar has been smashed!

What has happened to the other ingredients?

Apply the present perfect tense to these sentences and underline where you have used it in a different colour.
