

Subject ART		Title sculpture - coil pot and animal sculpture
Skills		Knowledge	Vocabulary
rolling flat		 Louise Goodman 1937 – She is a member of a clan of The Navajo Nation in Arizona, USA. Louise makes coil pots known for their coils being visible on the outside. She also creates sculptures of animals. Wild animals are very special to the Navajo because they have a great spiritual importance.	Native American – the people who originally lived in North America Navajo – one of the Native American tribes culture Folk Art – decorative or practical art that is made in a particular culture coil pot – a pot made by joining layers of coils to build its height rolling – flattening clay to an even surface, using a rolling pin carving – to create form by taking away parts of the clay with a tool moulding – to create form by squeezing and stretching the clay with your finers ceramics – pots and other articles made from clay making coils
scoring & slip	 	carving out & making texture  	secondary colour tint shade blending & smoothing	