

L.O: To use sources of evidence to deduce information about the past - scaffolded

This man is awake all night in the London Underground to escape the bombing. What is he thinking?

These nurses are leaving a home after looking after people who have been hurt as the building around them collapse.

What are they thinking?

These boys have spent the last 40 nights, escaping the bombing by staying with their families in the Underground Tube stations.

Despite the dangers, they are playing cards to pass the time. What are they thinking?

These soldiers have seen a car trapped underneath the rubble. What are they thinking?