

Thursday 18th June

What to do today

Writing about clever animals

1. Re-Read The Little Story Who Didn't Want to Be Told by Wilf Merttens and Anne Holm Petersen.

2. The Cat is considered the cleverest animal in the forest.
  - With the help of a grown-up, think of another animal that is clever.
  - This could be an animal you actually know, like a pet your family has, or one you've read about, seen on TV or discovered on the Internet.
Open <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/16940749> or <https://www.readersdigest.ca/home-garden/pets/5-incredibly-intelligent-animals/> and read about some very clever animals if you are stuck for an idea.
  - On My Clever Animal, write a paragraph describing your animal.
  - Write another paragraph explaining what clever things it does.

Now try this Fun-Time Extra

- Draw your clever animal.
