

LO: to show an understanding of the historical concept of RESISTANCE

Boudicca

Actually liked and worked with the Romans to start with.

Her husband made a deal with the Romans.

She couldn't read or write.

The Romans took her daughters and all of her wealth.

She chose to poison herself instead of becoming a Roman prisoner.

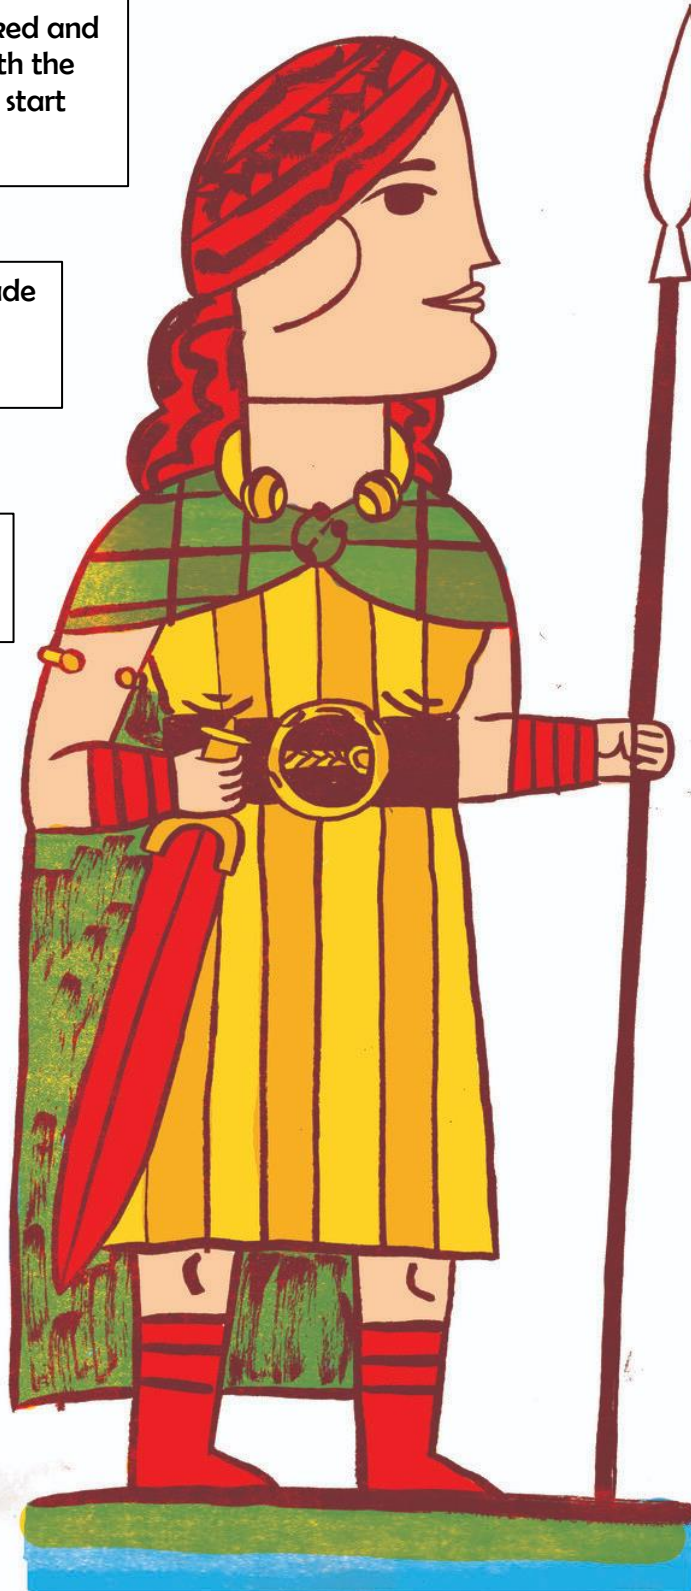

Built up a very large army of Celtic tribes to fight the Romans.

She was the leader of the Iceni tribe.

She set fire to Roman towns.

She destroyed Colchester first, then St Albans and London.

The Romans stayed in Britain for another 350 years after she died.

LO: to show an understanding of the historical concept of RESISTANCE

Boudicca

Actually liked and worked with the Romans to start with.

Her husband made a deal with the Romans.

She couldn't read or write.

She chose to poison herself instead of becoming a Roman prisoner.

Built up a very large army of Celtic tribes to fight the Romans.

She was the leader of the Iceni tribe.

She set fire to Roman towns.

The Romans stayed in Britain for another 350 years after she died.

She destroyed Colchester first, then St Albans and London.

The Romans stayed in Britain for another 350 years after she died.