Lesson 1 - to understand how art and design both reflect and shape history

Ancient Roman Mosaics and tiles

Who inspired the Romans with their artwork?

The Ancient Greeks. The Romans brought back Greek artists to Rome to sculpt and paint after they conquered Greece.

What can we take from Roman mosaics?

We can find out about everyday life such as weapons and coins and were inspired by patterns and the way mosaics were made.

Modern Mosaics and tiles

How did Roman art influence art today?

Artists have always been inspired by Ancient Rome. They have tried to show richness in art like the Romans did. We still put heads of leaders on coins like they did.

Where do we see mosaics today?

Mosaics are seen on floors and on walls, inside and outside of buildings. Many different types of materials can be used to create mosaics.
