

- When Red arrives at her grandmother's house, she soon realises that something isn't right.
- After a pillow fight, Red finds her grandmother in the wardrobe and together they drive the wolf from the house.
- Little Red Riding Hood meets a wolf in the forest and they have a friendly little dance.
- Red points to where she's going, giving the wolf the idea to race off to get there first.
- Red stares at her big eyes, big ears and even bigger teeth - and it's at that point she knows that it's actually the wolf!
