

1. Little Red Riding Hood meets a wolf in the forest and they have a friendly little dance.
2. Red points to where she's going, giving the wolf the idea to race off to get there first.
3. When Red arrives at her grandmother's house, she soon realises that something isn't right.
4. Red stares at her big eyes, big ears and even bigger teeth - and it's at that point she knows that it's actually the wolf!
5. After a pillow fight, Red finds her grandmother in the wardrobe and together they drive the wolf from the house.