

Sandwich Sentences

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

When writing, you can add parenthesis to the middle of a sentence to add extra information. Parenthesis is when a word, phrase or clause is inserted into the sentence to give extra information. They are sometimes also known as an embedded clauses or as embedded relative clauses (if they begin with a relative pronoun). For example:

Susie likes to play rugby at school.

Susie, who is very sporty, likes to play rugby at school.

In the example above, the parenthesis has been placed in the middle of the sentence after the proper noun 'Susie', who it gives more information about. You can think of it as a sandwich. The parenthesis is the filling that goes between the two slices of bread. We use commas to separate the parenthesis from the main part of the sentence. Complete the sandwiches sentences below by adding parenthesis clauses of additional information from the box:

Parenthesis
, a very large fish,
, which is a natural satellite,
, who wrote the Harry Potter books,
, a renowned superhero,
, who created Mickey Mouse,

Sandwich Sentences 2

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

This time add your own parenthesis clauses to each of the sentences below after the noun written in bold. Remember to place commas around the parenthesis.

9. By the river, the children _____ played pool sticks.
10. The fierce bear _____ paced through the forest.

Bridget Bracket

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Bridget Bracket loves to use brackets for parenthesis in her sentences. Parenthesis is a word, phrase or clause that is put in writing as extra information. Because the information is usually non-essential, if you took the parenthesis away the sentence would still make sense. For example:

Dinosaurs became extinct 65 million years ago.

Dinosaurs (a type of reptile) became extinct 65 million years ago.

Bridget Bracket wants you to read the sentences below and add the brackets around the parenthesis (the bit of extra information in each sentence).

1. Ben Nevis the tallest mountain in the UK is found in Scotland.
2. Elvis Presley who was born in 1935 was a famous American singer and actor.
3. Prince William who is a member of the royal family helped open the new hospital.
4. Mary Berry famous for her recipes is a judge in a baking competition.
5. In school, Mia a four-year-old girl was sat eating chocolate cake.
6. The black rhino an animal found in Africa is an endangered species.
7. Neil Armstrong an American astronaut was the first man on the moon.

Bridget Bracket's 2nd Challenge

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Well done for completing Bridget Bracket's first challenge! Now, can you complete her next challenge? Match the parenthesis with the sentence it would relate to most by drawing a line to match them together.

Sentences

Mars is one of the closest planets to Earth.
The dog chased the squirrel in the park.
We visited Madrid in the summer holidays.
Queen Victoria is the second longest-reigning British monarch.
The boy is building a snowman.

Parenthesis

1819-1901
the capital of Spain
who was wearing a red hat and mittens
a large golden retriever
also known as the red planet

Then, write the sentences out using brackets for parenthesis- in your best handwriting!

The Double Dash

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Dashes can also be used to mark out extra information (parenthesis), which is inserted into a sentence much like commas or brackets. For example:

The train – which was already running late – had to travel slowly due to leaves on the track.

The sentence above would still make sense without the parenthesis in dashes. However, the dashes highlight the extra information for the reader. For each of the sentences below, try and add an extra phrase or clause of information (parenthesis) using dashes to separate it from the

1. I watched a Christmas film - A Christmas Carol - and it made me feel happy.
2. Lions _____ can be found in parts of Africa.
3. Jupiter _____ is named after a Roman god.
4. The aeroplane _____ couldn't take off due to the bad weather.
5. The young boy _____ won the race!
6. Many cats _____ sleep for 15 hours a day.
7. The rainforest _____ is in danger of being cut down.
8. Last week _____ I fell at school and grazed my knee.

The Double Dash

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Dashes can also be used to mark out extra information (parenthesis), which is inserted into a sentence much like commas or brackets. For example:

The train – which was already running late – had to travel slowly due to leaves on the track.

The sentence above would still make sense without the parenthesis in dashes. However, the dashes highlight the extra information for the reader. For each of the sentences below, try and add an extra phrase or clause of information (parenthesis) using dashes to separate it from the

5. The young boy _____ won the race!
6. Many cats _____ sleep for 15 hours a day.
7. The rainforest _____ is in danger of being cut down.
8. Last week _____ I fell at school and grazed my knee.

Use the information below to complete the sentences. REMEMBER to include the pairs of dashes on each side, when you write them into your sentence.

For example: Lions – especially great, big ones – can be found in parts of Africa.

a large type of cat

the largest planet in the solar system

but not all of them

on Tuesday morning

full of many rare plants and animals

the fastest athlete in school

which was already late

The Dramatic Dash

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Whereas brackets must always come in pairs, only one dash is required if the parenthesis comes at the end a sentence. A dash by itself can be used to separate something dramatic (and usually contrasting) at the end of the sentence from the start of a sentence. For example:

It was a dark night – perhaps the darkest night he'd ever seen.

Match the start of the sentence to the dramatic parenthesis best suited to it. Then, write the sentences out correctly below and place the dash in the correct position in each one.

Start of the sentence

It was a hot day
The jaguar scanned the undergrowth
He walked into the room
She looked at her watch

Dramatic parenthesis

its prey was trying to hide.
he had no idea there was somebody hiding there.
possibly the hottest day of the year!
when would her friend arrive?

Now write each sentence out correctly in the spaces below. Remember to include the dramatic dash!

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Parenthesis Paragraph

Year 5 Punctuation: Brackets, Dashes and Commas to Indicate Parenthesis

Look at the paragraph below about the animals at Chester Zoo. Some of the words have been written in bold. Please rewrite the paragraph adding parenthesis about the words in bold. For example:

The monkey's feeding time is very popular with the visitors.

The monkey's feeding time (at 10.00 am each day) is very popular with the visitors.

You can choose whether to use commas, brackets or dashes.

Hint: You may wish to research Chester Zoo online with an adult before completing this activity.

Chester Zoo was first opened in 1931. There are over 500 species of animals and 125 acres of habitats to explore! For those interested in big cats, exotic jaguars can be observed in a replica of their natural habitat. There are also lions, cheetahs and tigers. For fans of reptiles, you can find all sorts of scaly creatures in the tropical house. The elephants are located near the main entrance. In addition to all of the animal species, there are also many picnic areas.

Use the information below to complete the paragraph on page 8. REMEMBER to include commas, brackets or dashes to show the extra information.

-likes snakes and lizards-

(a zoo in the North of England)

- It's great fun for the whole family!
- for you to stop to eat and take in all of the scenery at the same time!

(an endangered species in the wild)

, the largest existing land animals,

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Phonetic Alphabet

The phonetic alphabet is a list of 26 code words used by the police, military and other emergency services, to send messages over the phone or radio.

This is because many letters sound the same, like m and n or s and f, and it can be confusing when you communicate important messages.

Copy the code words neatly:

Alpha	_____	Juliet	_____	Sierra	_____
Bravo	_____	Kilo	_____	Tango	_____
Charlie	_____	Lima	_____	Uniform	_____
Delta	_____	Mike	_____	Victor	_____
Echo	_____	November	_____	Whisky	_____
Foxtrot	_____	Oscar	_____	Xray	_____
Golf	_____	Papa	_____	Yankee	_____
Hotel	_____	Quebec	_____	Zulu	_____
India	_____	Romeo	_____

Write your name below using the phonetic alphabet.

Example: LETTERJOIN

Lima Echo Tango Tango Echo Romeo Juliet Oscar Indigo November

Your name: _____

Working with a partner, spell a word using the phonetic alphabet.

Read the code words to your partner.

Can they write your word correctly?
