

Monday 25th January

L.O: To identify an audience

Task 1

Look at the Amazing Hotels - Pictures

Which hotel would you most like to visit? Why?

I would most like to visit hotel number ___ because _____

Which hotel would you least like to visit? Why?

I would least like to visit hotel number ___ because _____

Task 2

Read the Amazing Hotels - Descriptions. Can you match the descriptions to the pictures?
Write the hotel numbers next to the description on the sheet.

Highlight the words and phrases which provide unique (different and special) information about the hotel. The first one has been done for you.

Challenge

Choose an adult from your house. Which hotel do you think they would like to visit and why?
Later, ask them if you were correct.

I believe my _____ would really like to visit hotel number ___ because _____

Amazing Hotels - Pictures

Hotel 1

Hotel 2

Hotel 3

Hotel 4

Amazing Hotels - Descriptions

The Manta Resort - Tanzania

This resort on the tropical island of Pemba offers its guests an underwater hotel. This is a floating three-storey lodge with the bedroom surrounded by windows, completely underneath the sea. You will fall asleep surrounded by coral, colourful fish and dolphins.

Hotel
number

—

Kakslutten Arctic Resort - Finland

In this hotel, you sleep in an igloo cabin. The igloos are not made of ice, but they have transparent domed ceilings so that you can see the outside world at all times. You may see the northern lights or even spot reindeer roaming free through the woods that surround you.

Hotel
number

—

Hard Day's Night Hotel, Liverpool

This hotel is dedicated to the Liverpool band, the Beatles. It is the world's only Beatle's inspired hotel. You can stay in the John Lennon or Paul McCartney Suite. The Lennon Suite has an all-white décor and includes a piano, lounge area, and a private bathroom suite.

Hotel
number

—

Montana Magica Lodge, Chile

This hotel recreates the shape of a mountain. It is set in the Huilo Huilo reserve in Chile and is surrounded by natural springs. There are also many different types of plant and animal to see. The rooms are log cabins and the windows look out onto the surrounding mountains.

Hotel
number

—

Task 3

Below are 4 adults who are looking for a unique (special and different) hotel stay. Which hotel would you recommend and why? Read the information about them carefully.

Name: Jenny  I love to go on holiday where it is hot. I enjoy going scuba diving on holiday so I can explore the wonderful animals which live in the sea.	Name: John  I love to be out in the fresh air exploring nature. I have never tried mountain climbing but I'd like to try it.
I would recommend hotel number ___ because	I would recommend hotel number ___ because
Name: Peter  If ever I am feeling down or grumpy I turn up my music and sing myself happy. My favourite band is the Beatles.	Name: Sally  I don't like to go on holiday where it is hot. I prefer to explore colder countries. I would really like to see something unique and special on my trip.
I would recommend hotel number ___ because	I would recommend hotel number ___ because

