

Friday 12th February

It's nearly the end of term and we thought it would be great for you to have some fun and make everyone laugh. Today's lesson focus is jokes.

Task 1

- Read Ha, Ha, Ha, Boom! (Part 1).
- Put a star next to the jokes that you really like. Put a question-mark next to any that you don't understand. Ask a grown-up if they can explain those ones to you later.
- Choose 3-5 of the jokes and try learning them by heart. Practise telling them out loud. Can you use actions, expression and pauses to make them sound really funny? Try them out on someone else.

Task 2

- Writing jokes can be a tricky thing to do, watch this video for some top tips: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p04v9hkk>
- Read the WAGOLLS in Task 2. Can you think of a punchline?
- Can you write some of your own jokes in the same style?

Possible punchlines (Support)

It's pants!	It's buzzing	Tiring
It's cool	It's rubbish	Pretty well

3. Try making up your own 'new job' jokes.

Think of a job and then think of a word or expression that could go with it to make a punchline.

Or think of the expression and then think of the job it would match.

TOP TIP

Think of the expression first and then think of the job it would match.

E.g. I'm flying could be the punchline to a pilot job.
